

CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET OFFICE COST ESTIMATE

November 8, 1999

H.J. Res. 54 Granting the consent of Congress to the Missouri-Nebraska Boundary Compact

As passed by the Senate on November 5, 1999

H.J. Res. 54 would give Congressional consent to the boundary change between Missouri and Nebraska. This compact would enable the two states to establish a compromise boundary without affecting private property rights or title to property. Enacting the resolution would result in no cost to the federal government. Because enactment of H.J. Res. 54 would not affect direct spending or receipts, pay-as-you-go procedures would not apply. The resolution contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act and would impose no costs on state, local, or tribal governments.

On August 5, 1999, CBO provided a cost estimate for H.J. Res. 54 as ordered reported by the House Committee on the Judiciary on August 3, 1999. The two estimates are identical.

The CBO staff contact for this estimate is Lanette J. Keith. This estimate was approved by Peter H. Fontaine, Deputy Assistant Director for Budget Analysis.
